Langham Vineyard Café opening + new vintage launch – Event Photography and Product Shots – Dorset Food & Drink Photographer Richard Budd

Langham Vineyard Café opening + new vintage launch…

A new café a new vintage – a new office for me??? By that I mean what a place to take coffee and catch-up on a few emails.

We shot the “Launch Event” then took a few bottles back to the Photography Studio to shoot the pack shots of the Langhams Press and PR.

Nip over to taste the brand new 2014 vintages of three cuvées.

Try the food from the wonderful – The Vineyard Café’, headed up by Andrew James Catering.
